WELCOME

Welcome to the 2026 Midlands Garden Rail Show.

Established in 2002, the Midlands Garden Rail Show has grown to become one of the country's leading exhibitions dedicated to garden railways.

This year's event presents an impressive and diverse selection of large-scale layouts across a range of gauges. Among the new exhibits for 2026 are Carding Road and Streetly Road Short Heath, while much-loved favourites including Barley End, Loft City Central Railway and Lough Motive Power Depot make a welcome return.

Throughout the exhibition you will also find a wide variety of specialist suppliers, offering an extensive range of garden railway products — from locomotives and rolling stock to track, buildings and accessories. We encourage you to visit them all to explore the full range of products and expertise on display.

Our ground floor coffee shop is located at the end of the main hall, while the mezzanine restaurant above provides breakfast, lunch, and an excellent view of the show below.

We trust you will enjoy your visit and have a memorable experience at this year's Midlands Garden Rail Show.

Barley End

Stand: O

Barley End is a rural country halt. The main employment of Barley End is the warehouse which receives barley by rail and is transferred to road to deliver to the mill. Questions are always welcome.

Blackgang

Stand: M

Blackgang, famous for smuggling activities of years gone by is on the most southerly part of the Isle of Wight at St Catherine's Point. The track layout is loosely based upon Bembridge and incorporates other island characteristics. Many locomotives and stock used are authentic Isle of Wight examples, but there might be the occasional visitor from other Gauge 3 members.

Carding Road

Stand: G

Carding Road is the new Gauge 1 portable track of the Midlands Group of G1MRA. Rural stations often had "Road" attached to the name indicating they were in fact some distance from the town or village who's name they carried.

Generally "based" on the Midlands area we run live steam locomotives fired by coal, alcohol and gas, we also run battery electric locomotives including 3D printed models of very early trains from the inception of railways up to 200 years ago.

Gauge 1 Vintage Tinplate Trains Group

Stand: P

The layout features both Gauge 1 and 2 trains. Gauge 1 items from 1902 to the 1930's and Gauge 2 from 1902 to 1917. Operating three rail, clockwork and battery electric. Most of the rolling stock is pre WW1 With some coaches up to the mid 20's, and period buildings

G Scale Layout Display

Stand: I

The layout showcases what's available to run in G scale which is to a scale of 1-22.5 or 45mm gauge track. G scale is mainly used in garden railways but if you have the space, indoor as well. We have a range of trains from Europe and USDA running on the layout this weekend.

Halesfield Traction Maintenance Depot

Stand: A

Halesfield Traction Maintenance Depot is an O gauge fictional depot created in 2024. Starting with the steam loco shed and the goods exchange sidings, then moving on to the BR diesel depot extension. From steam to diesel, a mix for everyone.

Loft City Central Railway

Stand: H

Loft City Central Railway is literally a lifetimes collection. It is an extensive collection of vintage 'Playmobil'. A nostalgic look back at many people's childhoods of toys that many of you will recognise. Showing various themes, this is not just a model railway; this layout demonstrates a whole way of life in Loft City!

Lough Motive Power Depot

Stand: B

Loosely based on the track plan of Slough Windsor Branch this is a 7mm fine scale layout made from 120 sections. The stock is from the 1950 to 1965 period that was as seen at the time, mainly steam, with some early diesel.

Streetly Road Short Heath

Stand: N

This layout features 1/16 scale model trams on a 2 5/8inch tram layout. Created and built by cousins and based on Streetly Road in Birmingham.
